The Konbit Small Grants Program provides funding opportunities for Capacity Development Grants to eligible local organizations and competitive Innovation Grants designed to fund inventive solutions to development challenges specific to the Haitian context.

Grant | September 2017 – October 2018

- Streamline procedures manuals;
- Develop a strategic plan;
- Develop branding and marking guidelines;
- Develop an information management system.

Results Achieved

- Improved administrative procedures and project implementation guidelines;
- Ayiti Nexus' mission, goals and objectives established over a three-year period;
- Developed a stronger more unique brand with holistic visuals for all services;
- Established the framework for project management software that will help coordinate and alleviate operational issues between the Ayiti Nexus' offices in Cap-Haitian and Port-au-Prince.

“Konbit sends the message that strengthening local organizations is the only way to ensure self-reliance in the development sector. It is clear that Haiti's problems need local solutions and those solutions can only be implemented by strong local organizations.” Nathalie Brunet, Managing Partner Ayiti Nexus

Ayiti Nexus is a women-led boutique-consulting firm with offices in two strategic regions, Port-au-Prince and Cap-Haitian. Ayiti Nexus manages development projects and programs in Haiti with clients ranging from government agencies, international NGOs, local grass roots organizations and private investors. Ayiti Nexus also leads self-funded activities to address sustainability challenges in Haiti.
